 - 6.2.6.3.1 The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is twenty (20) percent or more of the transaction amount.
 - 6.2.6.3.2 The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is ten (10) percent or more of the transaction amount.
 - 6.2.6.4 No more than three (3) months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided, where the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and not more than six (6) months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.

- 6.2.6.5 Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or CPA opinion.
- 6.2.7 The calculation of the transaction amounts shall be done in accordance with Article 14, section 1, subsection 5 (14.1.5). Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

Article 7

Disposition Procedures for the transaction between related parties

7.1 Appraisal procedures

When the Company engages in any acquisition or disposal of assets from or to a related party, in addition to following the procedures specified in Article 5, Article 6 and Article 8, the Company also has to ensure that the necessary resolutions are adopted in accordance with this article and the reasonableness of the transaction terms is appraised. If the transaction amount reaches ten (10) percent or more of the Company's total assets, the Company shall also obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion in compliance with Article 5, Article 6 and Article 8. When judging whether a trading counterparty is a related party or not, in addition to legal formalities, the substance of the relationship shall also be considered.

7.2 Operating procedures

7.2.1 When the Company intends to acquire or dispose of real property or right-of-use assets from or to a related party, or when it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property or right-of-use assets from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches twenty (20) percent or more of paid-in capital ; or ten (10) percent or more of the Company's total assets ; or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or repurchase of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract and make a payment until the following matters have been approved by the audit committee and the board of directors:

7.2.1.1 The purposes, necessities and expected benefits for acquiring and disposing of assets.

7.2.1.2 The reason for choosing a related party as a counter party.

7.2.1.3 When acquiring real property or right-of-use assets from a related party, the Company shall evaluate the reasonableness of the scheduled terms and relevant documentations subject to paragraph one and paragraph two (7.2.1.1 and 7.2.1.2) under this subsection (7.2.1).

7.2.1.4 The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original trading counterparty, and that trading counterparty's relationship to the Company and the related party.

7.2.1.5 Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the fund utilization.

7.2.1.6 An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion obtained in compliance with the preceding section (7.1).

7.2.1.7 Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

7.2.1.8 The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in this subsection (7.2.1) shall be made in accordance with Article 14, section 1, subsection 5 (14.1.5) herein. Items that have been approved by the audit committee and the board of directors need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

7.2.1.9 With respect to the acquisition or disposal of business-use equipment between the Company and its subsidiaries, or between its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, except pursuant to Article 6, section 2, subsection 4 (6.2.4) and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the latest board of directors meeting.

7.2.1.9.1 Acquisition or disposal of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof held for business use.

7.2.1.9.2 Acquisition or disposal of real property right-of-use assets held for business use.

Where the position of independent director has been created in accordance with the provisions of the law, when a matter is submitted for discussion by the board of directors pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the board of directors shall take into full consideration each independent director's opinions. If an independent director objects to or expresses reservations about any matter, it shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors meeting.

If the company or a subsidiary thereof that is not a domestic public company will have a transaction and the transaction amount will reach 10 percent or more of the company's total assets, the company shall submit the materials in the subparagraph 1 of paragraph 2 to the shareholders meeting for approval before the transaction contract may be entered into and any payment made. However, this restriction does not apply to transactions between the company or its subsidiaries or between its subsidiaries. The calculation of the transaction amount, which items have been approved by the shareholders meeting, the audit committee and the board of directors need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

7.2.2 Evaluation of the reasonableness of the transaction costs

7.2.2.1 The Company acquiring real property or right-of-use assets from a related party shall evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs by the following means:

7.2.2.1.1 Based upon the related party's transaction price plus necessary interest on funding and the costs to be duly borne by the buyer. "Necessary interest on funding" is imputed as the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the Company purchases the property; provided, it may not be higher than the maximum non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.

7.2.2.1.2 Total loan value appraisal from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan; provided, the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been seventy (70) percent or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property and the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply where the financial institution is a related party of one of the trading counterparties.

7.2.2.2 Where land and structures thereupon are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction, the transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the means listed in the preceding paragraph (7.2.2.1).

7.2.2.3 The Company that acquires real property or right-of-use assets from a related party and appraises the cost of the real property or right-of-use assets in accordance with paragraph 1 (7.2.2.1) and paragraph 2 (7.2.2.2) shall also engage a CPA to check the appraisal and render a specific opinion.

7.2.2.4 When the results of appraisal conducted that the Company acquired real property or right-of-use assets in accordance with paragraph 1 (7.2.2.1) and paragraph 2 (7.2.2.2) of this Article are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be handled in compliance with paragraph 5 (7.2.2.5) and paragraph 6 (7.2.2.6) of this Article. However, where the following circumstances exist, objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a CPA, this restriction shall not apply:

7.2.2.4.1 Where the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:

7.2.2.4.1.1. Where undeveloped land is appraised in accordance with the means in the preceding Article, and structures according to the related party's construction cost plus reasonable construction profit are valued in excess of the actual transaction price. The "Reasonable construction profit" shall be deemed the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent 3 years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.

7.2.2.4.1.2. Completed transactions by unrelated parties within the preceding year involving other floors of the same property or neighboring or closely valued parcels of land, where the land area and transaction terms are similar after calculation of reasonable price discrepancies in floor or area land prices in accordance with standard property market sale or leasing practices.

7.2.2.4.2 Where the Company acquiring real property, or obtaining real property right-of-use assets through leasing, from a related party provides evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of a similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year. Completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the preceding paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block and within a distance of no more than 500 meters or parcels close in publicly announced current value; transactions involving similarly sized parcels in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50 percent of the property in the planned transaction; within the preceding year refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the acquisition of the real property or obtainment of the right-of-use assets.

7.2.2.5 Where the Company acquires real property or right-of-use assets from a related party and the results of appraisals conducted in accordance with 7.2.2.1、7.2.2.2、7.2.2.3、7.2.2.4、7.2.2.7 are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the following steps shall be taken. Also, where the Company and a public company uses the equity method to account for its investment in the Company that have set aside special reserves as mentioned may not utilize the special reserves until it has recognized a loss on decline in market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, or they have been disposed of, or the leasing contract has been terminated, or adequate compensation has been made, or the status quo ante has been restored, or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the competent authority has given its consent.

7.2.2.5.1 The Company shall set aside a special reserve in accordance with section 1 of Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act against the difference between the real property or right-of-use assets transaction price and the appraised cost, and may not be distributed or used for capital increase or issuance of bonus shares. Where the Company uses the equity method to account for its investment in another company, then the special reserve called for under section 1 of Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act shall be set aside pro rata in a proportion consistent with the share of the Company's equity stake in the other company.

7.2.2.5.2 Supervisors shall comply with Article 218 of the Company Act. Where an audit committee has been established in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the preceding part of this subparagraph shall apply mutatis mutandis to the independent director members of the audit committee.

7.2.2.5.3 Actions taken pursuant to subparagraph 1 (7.2.2.5.1) and subparagraph 2 (7.2.2.5.2) of this paragraph shall be reported to a shareholders meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and any investment prospectus.

7.2.2.6 When the Company obtains real property or right-of-use assets from a related party, it shall also comply with the paragraph 5 of this Article (7.2.2.5) if there is other evidence indicating that the acquisition was not an arm's length transaction.

7.2.2.7 Where the Company acquires real property or right-of-use assets from a related party and one of the following circumstances exists, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with 7.2.1 and 7.2.2.1、7.2.2.2、7.2.2.3 do not apply:

7.2.2.7.1 The related party acquired the real property or right-of-use assets through inheritance or as a gift.

7.2.2.7.2 More than 5 years will have elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or right-of-use assets to the signing date for the current transaction.

- 7.2.2.7.3 The real property is acquired through signing of a joint development contract with the related party, or through engaging a related party to build real property, either on the company's own land or on rented land.
- 7.2.2.7.4 The real property right-of-use assets for business use are acquired by the Company and subsidiaries, or by its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital.
